

100 Authorities Who Reject the Covid-19 Narrative

Here is a sample of 100 medical professionals who oppose the Covid-19 vaccines and vaccination programs. Since there are literally thousands of medical professionals with the same basic opinions (see list at bottom), another 100 doctors could also be produced, and another 100 after that, and so on. We think that the 100 listed here should be sufficient to convince most people who are still able to think clearly that Covid-19 vaccines should be avoided — and for a variety of reasons, as given below!

Dr. Preben Aavitsland, chief physician in the infection control division at the Norwegian Institute of Public Health, has declared the severity of Covid-19 in Norway to be so low that the endemic is “virtually over” there.
