Antiterrorism: Exposing the Deep State

The “Deep State” is the proto-government aimed at the creation of a “New World Order” (Novus Ordo Seclorum), a world ruled by one government. This is undoubtedly the organization referred to by President John F. Kennedy in a speech given at the Waldorf Astoria in April 1961: (Cont’d. at the bottom of this frame.)

BUREAU OF PREEMPTIVE PLANS

Operation Bluebook:

Recent revelations in the legacy media of the Pentagon’s admissions of the reality of UFOs looks to this veteran observer like the prep stage for a new source of terror: An invasion of our planet by space aliens. Once the simple techniques and tools to be used in Operation Bluebook are explained we will discover that an invasion from Outer Space is relatively easy to pull off.

The obvious predecessor for this operation is War of the Worlds, both the Orson Welles broadcast of 1938 that threw the US population (or parts of it) into panic. This was followed by a Steven Spielberg movie in 2005 and a TV series in 2019. A parallel production called Independence Day carries much the same theme. We are well prepared for the “real” thing.

The effect: The evening news carries reports of a fleet of mysterious objects headed straight toward the Earth, complete with sound bytes from astronomers and military personnel. As they approach the Earth, turning out to be organized into what one senior officer calls “battle groups”, people hear military jets screaming over head, army trucks rolling in convoys along major highways, regular updates take over with a voice from the Pentagon. Then, without warning, what look like meteors streak across the sky, Baltimore (or large parts of it) bursts into flame, freeways are jammed with fleeing citizens, and F-35’s explode in mid air. Here and there across the nation saucer-shaped aircraft appear on the news, using heat rays to set fire to random houses and buildings. The broadcast media use Hollywood studios for those effects.

Suddenly a special broadcast issues from the White House. There, seated behind his desk is the President and beside him sits an awkward-looking gangly creature with immense compound eyes, hands with four fingers and so on. The President introduces the strange visitor as commander of the alien fleet. It speaks through a special mental translator — the invaders are evidently telepathic. It demands the immediate surrender of all armed forces on the planet and then outlines a new rule that will apply to humanity.

The cause: The “meteors” are simply decommissioned satellites (several hundred are now orbiting uselessly) set to re-enter and burn up in the atmosphere on ground command. The “heat ray” is very nearly that. Military satellites equipped with nuclear driven microwaves antennas focus their beams on selected targets on the surface of the planet. As for the alien in the White House, that will be the most fun of all for the perpetrators of this global panic. The aliens will then appoint rulers of the planet, including, possibly, “World Governor” Schwab.
