Antiterrorism: Exposing the Deep State

No. 132

New World News Bureau

Aug 31 /22

The “Deep State” is the proto-government aimed at the creation of a “New World Order” (Novus Ordo Seclorum), a world ruled by one government. This is undoubtedly the organization referred to by President John F. Kennedy in a speech given at the Waldorf Astoria in April 1961: (Cont’d. at the bottom of this frame.)

In this issue we continue with our new feature, as below. In addition, we have begun another new feature: the current counts of vaccine deaths and injuries as revealed in the FDA’s website called - - - or VAERS for short.

BUREAU Of PRE-EMPTIVE PLANNING

Operation Hotdog:

The male affliction known as ED or erectile dysfunction is the ongoing concern of many men in North America, if not the rest of the world. This is attested to by the $50 billion market for various herbal remedies cures, not to mention Viagra and Cialis. The market supplies “male enhancement” to men who worry about ED.

ED is a very strange affliction, allegedly “medical” but not necessarily. For example, heart problems are frequently listed among factors in ED. The problem is not with the specific defect, but with the fear of a recurrence owing to over excretion during sex. Such fear thus underlies many “medical” problems (short of poor circulation.)

The blocking mechanism is very simple: Let’s suppose a man and a women have decided on intimacy. On the male side a feeling of sexual excitement grows right up to penetration. This excitement is pure sensation, with no thought processes allowed to interfere; the male is wholly immersed in feeling.

Suppose however that an unforeseen circumstance focuses his attention on ED itself to the point where he may wonder if he will ever have that problem. Going into sex, he may wonder — just for a second — whether he will ever get ED. That tiny interruption in the purely sensual experience, may drag his mind into the process of waiting for feelings to start. The wait tends to cancel out the sensual side of the experience whereupon the man notices his lack of arousal and, in the worst cases, panic sets in and all excitement will have drained away, leaving a miserable, forlorn man. As one ad puts it, showing a man sitting disconsolate on the side of the bed: “This has never happened to me before!”

Enter the news media to put such fears to work: “A worldwide wave of erectile dysfunction has spread around the globe, leaving men increasingly unable to enter sexual relations with their partners.” Medical researchers suspect a virus, but it has yet to be isolated. Meanwhile, statistics have revealed a worsening trend, with numbers mounting daily in every state.” Now the typical male is fully primed with just the right degree of concern. That night? Disaster!

Bottom line: as sexual relations decline so does the birthrate, cutting the growth side of the population curve and giving free rein to decline.
