Antiterrorism: Exposing the Deep State

No. 138

New World News Bureau

Mar10/23

The “Deep State” is the proto-government aimed at the creation of a “New World Order” (Novus Ordo Seclorum), a world ruled by one government. This is undoubtedly the organization referred to by President John F. Kennedy in a speech given at the Waldorf Astoria in April 1961: (Cont’d. at the bottom of this frame.)

Another change in the focus of this series of scenarios has taken place with the inclusion of methods for both past and future operations.

MODUS OPERENDI

Operation Sidewalk

The murder of the Afzal family of London ON drew universal attention to yet another attack on Muslims, carried out, according to the print & broadcast media, by an islamophobic racist by the name of Nathaniel Veltman. To construct a scenario for how such an operation might be executed, we first need to distinguish between a chance attack and one more carefully planned. It strikes me as odd that an islamophobe would happen to be driving along Hyde Park just as a Muslim family was out for a walk and he decides on a whim to run them all over.

Regarded as an operation, it must have been known in advance that the Afzal family would be walking along that particular section of Hyde Park Road at the time of the attack. They do this habitually and are spotted by someone connected with local Deep State operatives.

In the meantime, a basic plan for the operation might have gone something like this: Person A borrows Veltman’s truck to carry out some errand. Person A turns the truck over to person B who carries out the attack and then returns the truck to person A who brings it back to Veltman who drives it to the Cherry Hill Mall parking lot.

In the meantime operatives gain entry to Veltman's apartment, planting evidence of velocity calculations on a sheet of paper and connections to anti-Muslim groups on his laptop. A police search, made after Veltman's arrest, will turn up evidence that it was Veltman who planned the attack.

It is not credible that a truck striking the Afzal family would have blood on the hood. Everyone in the family was fully clothed and the impact would throw family members away from the van in a split second, giving the blood from torn flesh little time to attach to the hood or front grill. In any case, if Veltman qua terrorist was driving the truck, would he not seek to hide his participation by checking the truck for marks of the impact? To disguise the truck's role in the attack, would he not have wiped the front of the truck to remove any evidence of an impact? If Veltman was not driving the truck at the time of the attack and the impact left little or no blood, the real perpetrators would throw a bucket of blood-like fluid onto the front of the van — or apply it more “artistically”

Continuing with the scenario, when Veltman picks up the truck from person A, he drives it back to the Cherry Hill Mall where a cabbie notices the blood and Veltman asks him to call 911 as his truck seems to have been involved in a hit and run — which doesn't sound like Veltman feels he has anything to hide. Stories about Veltman wearing a bullet proof vest and helmet are simply fabricated to enrich the narrative that would be constructed somewhat later,

The story is further developed by reporters who interview known associates of Veltman one of whom describes him as a “nice guy”. while another said that he showed no signs of being Islamophobic in real life. “Known ties” to hate groups would of course emerge from the police search of his apartment where the literature of hate groups had been planted earlier. “Nate is not a radical terrorist. He is nothing like that. He is not an Islamophobe. That's not who this kid is,” the friend, who hails from the Middle East, told the London Free Press. It would be interesting if his friend was a Muslim.

Documents related to the attack were to be sealed for the trial, police said, as it might jeopardize Veltman's chance for a fair hearing. Under the scenario presented here, it might jeopardize the Judge's chance of rendering a verdict of guilty.
