The “Deep State” is the proto-government aimed at the creation of a “New World Order” (Novus Ordo Seclorum), a world ruled by one government. This is undoubtedly the organization referred to by President John F. Kennedy in a speech given at the Waldorf Astoria in April 1961.

Special Feature:

. . . Trump may have been groomed for the job of President by his role as host on the TV reality show The Apprentice, a show that ran from 2004 right up to the presidential election in 2018. Could that have been part of Trump's introduction tp the American public? In any case, Trump would not have been the best choice for that role (as host of The Apprentice) since his fortune began with his father's money and, in the course of his business career, Trump made enough bad business decisions to lose three fortunes. Given his campaign promises, Trump was a shoo-in for President: close the border with Mexico, investigate 911, block foreign products with higher tariffs, and so on. The issues thus addressed had been simmering for more than a decade on the back burners of the internet. Trump was embraced with enthusiasm, not just by "deplorables" but even by people who had to hold their noses while voting for him. As one acquaintance in the Intel business put it to me, "While Hillary was filling high school auditoriums, Trump was filling stadiums."

What prevents me from regarding Trump as "his own man" is the sharp division between his domestic and foreign policies. While he baits the neoliberals at home, much to our delight, he shakes a fist at Iran, Russia, North Korea, views the Palestinians as terrorists, moves the US embassy to Jerusalem, and generally follows the Deep State agenda. Hillary, meanwhile, may well have expected to win the election, thinking perhaps that Trump's toxic personality would drive non-deplorable into her arms. Does she know what's going on? She may simply be a high-class "useful idiot."

We expect Punch and Judy to continue trading blows for the foreseeable future. Meanwhile, keep your eye on the ball, but don't forget to look around you from time to time.
